HARRY, Appellant

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA, Appellee

APPEAL FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 11TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR FLORIDA

CASE NO. [INSERT CASE NUMBER]

INTRODUCTION

This appeal arises from the conviction of Appellant, HARRY, for first-degree murder in the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On December 4, 2012, a confrontation occurred between Appellant, HARRY, and his neighbor, ROBERT HARRIS, over a dispute regarding property boundaries.

TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

During the trial, the prosecution presented evidence that Appellant killed ROBERT HARRIS to take control of the disputed land. HARRY claimed self-defense.

ISSUES ON APPEAL

Appellant raises the following issues on appeal:

- 1. Self-Defense Justification: The trial court failed to properly consider Appellant's justification under Florida law.
- 2. Inadequate Investigation: Law enforcement did not conduct a thorough investigation, including failing to interview key witnesses.
- 3. Improper Jury Instructions: The jury was not given clear instructions about the "Stand Your Ground" doctrine.

EVIDENCE SUPPORTING APPEAL

To support Appellant's appeal, the following evidence will be presented:

- 1. Police Report: This will show what was documented at the scene of the incident, including the presence of witnesses.
- 2. Autopsy Report: To analyze the nature of ROBERT HARRIS's injuries and how they support Appellant's claim of self-defense.
- 3. Medical Records: These will show Appellant's own injuries from the incident, which are consistent with a self-defense claim.
- 4. Property Deeds: To provide clarity about the ownership dispute that led to the confrontation.

RELEVANT LAWS

The following laws are relevant to this appeal:

- 1. Florida Statutes 782.04 (Murder): Defines the elements of first-degree murder.
- 2. Florida Statutes 776.012 (Stand Your Ground): Explains the right to use deadly force without a duty to retreat.

CONCLUSION

Appellant, HARRY, is innocent of the crime of first-degree murder. The trial was flawed, and the verdict was based on a misinterpretation of the evidence.
